

I do not want the rules prohibiting one company from owning both a television station and a newspaper in the same geographical location to be repealed. I urge you to keep the rules as they are. A free America is a strong America. Please keep us all free from corporate interests. Thank you for your time.